

Nagai Tabi: Tales and Travels of Japanese Works of Art to America

'The Soga Brothers' Revenge', Utagawa Toyokuni III, C1850
(At the Gregg Museum of Art & Design)

Sponsored by 米日財団
United States-Japan Foundation

Date & Time:
Wednesday, October 30th
Starting at 6:00PM

Place:
The Gregg Museum of Art & Design
1903 Hillsborough St. Raleigh, NC
27607

Lecturer:
Dr. Janice Katz,
Art Institute of Chicago

Admission Fee:

JASNC Members/NC Japan Center Affiliates – Free
Non-Members - $15,
Special Offer - $30 (one-year individual membership & free admission)

*Advanced registration is required. Seating is limited.

Please Register and Pay here.

Reception and mini-Koto concert by Kanako Ford will follow. Heavy hors d'oeuvres and drinks will be served.

Dr. Janice Katz is the Roger L. Weston Associate Curator of Japanese Art at the Art Institute of Chicago. Her research focuses on paintings from the Edo period (1615–1868) and the history of art collecting in Japan.

Topic: “Ukiyo-e and the Windy City: Clarence Buckingham's Prints at the Art Institute of Chicago”

This program is sponsored by the United States-Japan Foundation, the Richard J. Wood Art Curator Series Program and hosted by the NC Japan Center and Japan-America Society of North Carolina.

Parking Info:

