

JASNC Speaker's Series Program

September 13th 2016

UNC Greensboro, The Alumni House

11:30 am Lunch/Registration

12:30 pm Introduction: Dr. Tracy Tsuetaki, Chairman of the Japan-America Society of North Carolina

Welcome remarks:

- Dr. Amy Williamsen, Department Head and Professor of Hispanic Studies, Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures
- Dr. Roberto Campo, Director of International and Global Studies and Professor of French, Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures
- Dr. Chiaki Takagi, Director of Japanese Studies Program, Senior Lecturer of Japanese and Asian Studies, Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures
-

About New Voices from Japan Program: Dr. Ryo Sahashi, Head of the Delegation, New Voices from Japan

12:45 pm How to get gender equity in Japan?: Trends and the latest policy initiatives (Presentation followed by Q&A): Dr. Setsuya Fukuda, Senior Researcher, Department of Research Planning and Coordination National Institute of Population and Social Security Research, Japan

Can Strong Leadership Last Long?: Challenges for Japanese Politics and Diplomacy Today (Presentation followed by Q&A): Dr. Ryo Sahashi, Associate Professor of International Politics and Faculty of Law, Kanagawa University

2:15 pm Closing Remarks: Dr. Linda Grove, Training Director for the New Voices from Japan Program

Oakland Avenue Parking Deck Info:

Address: 711 Kenilworth Street, Greensboro, NC 27412

The Oakland Avenue Parking Deck is visible from Spring Garden Street, directly behind Yum Yum Ice Cream and the Old Town Draught House pub.

Once you are parked, please exit the deck at the Forest Street side. (If you enter the deck from Oakland Avenue, you will see that the side of the deck is facing Forest Street), and then turn left to head down towards Spring Garden Street.

Turn right at the corner of Forest St. and Spring Garden St. Turn left onto College Avenue at a crosswalk. The Alumni House is on the left.