

JASNC Speaker's Series Program September 12th 2016 UNC Chapel Hill, FedEx Global Education Center

5:00 pm Guest Registration

5:30 pm Introductions: Dr. Tracy Tsuetaki, Chairman of the Japan-America Society of North Carolina

Welcome Remarks: Brittany Darst, Program Associate, Carolina Asia Center

About New Voices from Japan Program: Dr. Ryo Sahashi, Head of the Delegation, New Voices from Japan

5:45 pm How to get gender equity in Japan?: Trends and the latest policy initiatives(Presentation followed by Q&A): Dr. Setsuya Fukuda, Senior Researcher, Department of Research Planning and Coordination National Institute of Population and Social Security Research, Japan

Can Strong Leadership Last Long?: Challenges for Japanese Politics and Diplomacy Today (Presentation followed by Q&A): Dr. Ryo Sahashi, Associate Professor of International Politics and Faculty of Law, Kanagawa University

7:15 pm Closing Remarks: Dr. Linda Grove, Training Director for the New Voices from Japan Program

FedEx Global Education Center Parking

This parking deck is directly underneath the building.

Alternative Parking: The Nash Lot

Direction

1. Turn right out of our parking lot.
2. Turn left onto Columbia St.
3. Make the next left onto Cameron Avenue.
4. Continue until the second stoplight, then turn left onto Wilson St.
5. The Nash Lot is at the end of Wilson St

